Eligibility Requirements

- The only decoration that has a rank limitation is the Achievement Medal which can’t be awarded to an O-6 or above.
Why Give Awards?

Leaders present various type of awards and decorations to recognize service members for valor, meritorious service, and achievement. It's a formal way of thanking them and recognizing them for their outstanding contributions to the Military's success in mission accomplishment.

Awards are given to deserving service members who increase esprit de corps in the unit and provide other personnel the necessary incentive to go above and beyond their day-to-day responsibilities thus contributing to the success of the unit.
Justification of Award

• The length of time is not a primary consideration; however, speed of accomplishment of an important task can be a determining value of an act. Also, for a service award, the individual would need to have served in the position for a sustained period of time to achieve a succession of outstanding acts of achievement.

• To justify a military decoration, an individual should have done more than just performed his job well. Cite specific accomplishments and how they enhance the organization.

• To have distinguished themselves, the individuals must be set apart from others in the same or similar military occupational by praiseworthy accomplishment. Determination of this distinction requires careful consideration of exactly what is or was expected as the ordinary, routine, or customary behavior and accomplishment, for individuals of like rank and experience, for the circumstances involved.

• The narrative justification then is the most important section of the recommendation and the content is the basis for approval or disapproval of the award.
Recommendation Procedures

- For Defense awards, will prepare recommendation per USUI 1347 & DoD 1348.33M.

- For Navy awards, will prepare 1650. (Only blocks 1 – 30 must be filled out) Recommending official will be most Senior Navy Officer at USU.

- For Army awards, will prepare DA 638 for routing through command. When acting Brigade Commander is COL, they can approve ACM & AAM, if LTC, only an AAM. Delegation of authority/assumption of orders, must be attached to DA 638.

- For Air Force awards, will prepare DÉCOR-6, proposed citation, and OPR/EPR for period. If act not covered by OPR/EPR, LOE is required with signature by Brigade Commander.
