TRISERVICE NURSING RESEARCH PROGRAM (TSNRP)
DISSEMINATION COURSE

“CREATING THE SCIENCE, ADVANCING THE PRACTICE”
22 - 25 AUGUST, 2016

Course Description: This course will include presentations by military nursing leaders; nationally known clinical experts; and triservice active, reserve, guard, and retired military nurse scientists and researchers. Poster abstracts and research/evidence-based practice (EBP) presentations and a variety of networking opportunities will also be featured. Clinical innovations in research and EBP projects will be showcased to stimulate research questions and effective interventions. Research methodology and education sessions will round out the program, providing CEUs for participants.

Target audience: Army, Navy, and Air Force active, Reserve, Guard, and retired Nurse Corps officers. DoD/civilian nurses are welcome on a space-available basis. This is a DoD approved course.

Location: La Quinta Inn & Suites, San Antonio Riverwalk, 303 Blum Street, San Antonio, TX

CEUs: Projected: 22 Contact Hours
